Results at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 27.—The thirty-first running of the famous old Kentucky Oaks, was the feature event of an excellent program at Churchill Downs this afternoon, and a large crowd turned out to witness the sport.

Seven fillies went to the post, with Sis Lee the favorite. Sis Lee was strongly supported by the people, but ran a disappointing race.

The winner, Jannetta, proved much the best. Austin rated her along in behind the leader the first half mile, and, rounding the turn into the home stretch, she moved up strong. At the furlong pole she caught and passed Mumand, and, drawing away at the end, won in a gallon.

Outside of the fixed event, the attraction was a seven furlong condition race, in which the Montgomery Handicap winner, Ram's Horn, started. The latter was heavily played at a short price, but failed to make good. Silver Skin beating him out a head, after a terrific drive, which lasted from the top of the stretch home. The track was fast.

ST. LOUIS, May 27.—It is something dy to catch him playing off second. like old times to be able to let out a Jones instead of running back went forwhoop about two victories in succession by the Nationals, but here it is. today downed St. Louis by 2 to 1 by playing better ball. Bill Wolfe twirled for Washington and was a ravenous destroyer. He was litt six times, but no two of the safeties were in the same inning. Only twice did he loosen up with a pass, and both those free rides were given in the first inning. Neither counted in the run-getting. In the fifth nning he stabbed Frisk in the leg, making two on bases, but Tom Jones flied and no harm was done.

Glade pitched an erratic game. He was hit in every inning but two, struck Gleason sat down hard when he tried to out nine men, and gave one lonely bese. The runs off him were made by bunching pairs of hits in the first and third rounds. Washington did well in the field, every man having a chance to distinguish himself except Huelsman, who had nothing more exciting than long Nill Was Busy.

Nill and Jones were the busy boys. Nill accepted as many chances at second as Stahl did at first base and made an error besides. The error was a rank juggle of a ground ball, but he more than atoned for that by a series of pretty stops when carelessness would in his indicator work have meant runs. Jones had five files in center, and while his catches were not sensational it was necessary for him did not curb his tongue. Jake promised to be quiet, and signified his honest intentions by making two hits, each of which brought in a run. As two runs were all Washington made his return was a big factor in the result.

Scoring Began, Washington started scoring in the first. Hill doubled and Stahl singled, bringing him home. The winning tally came in the third inning. Jones beat a bunt, Hill went out on bunted strikes, Jones stole second, and completed the circuit on Stahl's single to right.
